DIA DE LOS MUERTOS BLOCK PARTY

CALLANDS COFFEE

Caleb Cassell, contributing writer

Dean Rogers and Jennifer Reynolds are no “coffee snobs,” but they certainly love a good, fresh cup of coffee. About eighteen months ago, they packed their bags and left Boone, NC for Callands, VA; where Jennifer grew up. It did not take long for the couple to miss the freshly roasted, luxurious varied coffees Boone had to offer. After several months of commuting to the mountains of North Carolina and back just for a supply of coffee beans, Dean had an idea to bring fresh roasted coffee to the Danville/Pittsylvania County area that does not have an extensive variety. Dean and his wife Jennifer can be found at the community market Saturday morning’s, along with their different delicious coffees including Southside, Dominion Dark, Dan River Decaf, and Mocha Java blends. Be sure to like “Callands Coffee” on Facebook where you can keep up to date on events they plan to attend, the different coffees making appearances at the community market, and their latest updates about a future store on Main Street in Chatham!

BOOKS & BARBERS

Rivertown & Middle Border Forward recently collaborated for another community project, Books & Barbers. Books & Barbers is a literacy project to promote reading, character-building & increased mentorship between local barbers and youth in the community. For the project, Middle Border Forward provided bookcases & books in local barbershops for kids to read or have read to them while waiting to get their haircut. They also have the option to take the books home, if desired. If anyone is interested in donating books, contact a member of our team today!

Books & Barbers was sponsored by a Fellows 500 sponsorship, an initiative available to alumni of the Middle Border Forward Fellowship upon completion of the program.
